RE: Lakeview Beck Street Quarry NOI M/035/020

Dear Doug:

Enclosed are two copies of Lakeview's revised Final Pit Plan map per our conversation Thursday April 30th. We've added a pattern to show the one-time seeding of the benches, and located the storm water catch basin against the highwall, with clarifications in the map key. These maps are provided to replace those in the Division's February 2006 binder for the Final NOI. Thank you for your assistance.

Sincerely,

Linda J. Matthews
